

HOW TO WIN YOUR FIRST BATTLES IN CHESS

MG502

HOW TO WIN YOUR FIRST BATTLES IN CHESS

AUDIO CHESS CASSETTES AVAILABLE FROM MAGNEGRAPH
MG 501 CHESS FOR STARTERS (A BEGINNERS CASSETTE)
MG 502 HOW TO WIN YOUR FIRST BATTLES IN CHESS

MG502 How to Win your First Chess Battles

For players who know the moves and little else.

Side 1. Beginners game — first principles — some opening formations.

Side 2. A Master game.

Audio Chess is a new and perhaps revolutionary method of studying the game. Its basic ideas are simple - the cassette performs the role of a book or an instructor. The lessons are given in clear, simple language. Moves are delivered slowly and distinctly, so that the student always has time to make the move on the board.

Michael Basman, Inventor of Audio Chess is perhaps Britain's most original and controversial Chess Master. He has been amongst our top players since 1965 and is renowned for his creative approach and his trenchant support of the movement toward brighter chess. BOTVINNICK (USSR) World Chess Champion 1948—1963 — "In Chess you cannot achieve mastery without learning the art of creating original positions. In England, Basman is the only player who strives to do this".